CCCC INAUGURATES THE PEKING DUCK WITH SFPD CHIEF FONG

CCCC students, parents and staff joined SFPD Chief Heather Fong and Bay Quackers LLC on Friday, August 25th to celebrate the Peking Duck, a newly-refurbished World War II amphibious landing craft popularly known as a “duck boat”. Seven lucky children braved the morning fog for an inauguration ceremony at Fisherman’s Wharf, followed by a 90 minute duck boat tour across the city and bay. We even saw patrol boats from the San Francisco police and fire departments!

Special thanks to the Bay Quackers company for extending this invitation — and for generously donating the proceeds from that day’s tours to CCCC.

CCCC'S NEW LOOK

CCCC was busy with renovations this summer! Volunteers worked hard to improve the efficiency and functionality of our building. The kitchen was completely rebuilt with new cabinets and appliances, porcelain tile floors, and a solid granite countertop. The result is a modern and hygienic facility that allows CCCC to serve hot and nutritious meals to our students.

New lockers and cabinets were installed in the classroom, creating more durable storage space for students’ toys, books and belongings. Next steps include building a new playhouse in the schoolyard, re-finishing the center’s hardwood floors, and updating the children’s restroom.

Many thanks to Board Members Victor Kim and Lock Kwan, who acted as Project Managers for the renovations. Their planning ensured that the project was completed on time and within budget. We also thank our volunteer crew — Executive Director Lawland Long, Board Member Mervyn Han and CCCC friend Greg Fong — for working long hours on the weekends alongside Victor and Lock.

With all the changes at CCCC, we welcome you to drop by for a visit!

CLASSROOM UPDATE

With 30 new students this fall, teachers will focus their lesson plans on manners, friends and “all about me.” These lessons are geared towards students entering the classroom setting for the first time; returning students will benefit by getting to know their new classmates. Helping children understand their social environment will go far in preparing them for kindergarten.

Students will also start learning numbers, colors and the alphabet. Arts and crafts activities will celebrate the fall season and September holidays: Labor Day, Grandparents’ Day and the Chinese Mid-Autumn Festival.

CCCC will host an Open House for new parents on Thursday, September 21st at 5:45 pm where our academic programs will be reviewed in greater detail.

PRESIDENT'S UPDATE

CCCC's programs and mission would not be possible without our generous supporters. State funding and parent fees provide only 70% of our operating budget, leaving CCCC to raise a substantial amount each year from private sources.

To demonstrate our gratitude, we will host a 2nd annual appreciation dinner for our VIP Circle at the Slanted Door restaurant on Tuesday, October 3rd. CCCC's VIP Circle is made up of our most important sponsors — individuals and corporations committed to supporting a top-quality and multi-lingual early childhood education program in San Francisco's Chinatown.

If you are interested in joining our VIP Circle, please contact Board President Linda Ng at ccc@childrencenter.org
